GOVERNMENT BONDS.

RAILBOAD BONDS. Pacific railroad bonds closed as follows: STOCKS

The stock market this moraing was heavy and depressed, with considerable pressure to sell leading stocks. There were repeated bear attacks against the market, but more particularly against Lake Shore, which was sold freely. Stocks opened at 1131 and steadily declined until 1101 was touched, Michigan Central and Canada Southern were also conspicuous for weakness, declining 2 per cent. each. After midday there was a steadier feeling and a recovery of ball per cent, but this was subsequently lost, Lake Shore declining to 110, and the market became feverish Arregular, closing generally 1/23 per cent. lower than yesterday. The weakest stocks were Lake Shore, Michigan Cen-tral, New York Central, Western Union, Denver & Rio Grande, Missouri Pacific,

Ohio & Mississippi, and Jersey Central. The following were closing bids: Am'n Dist. Tel. 51 ' M L S & W. 48

This officer at once recognized the description as that of a robber who had on Monday night broken into the drug store of Dr. S. A. The sheriff at once determined to come to Omaha and arrest his man, but on reaching this city last evening learned that the bird had flown. He will leave for home at noon to-day.
